Facts About The Bible, by David Padfield

The Bible is composed of 66 books. There are 39 books in the Old Testament and 27 in the New Testament. Some 39 or 40 men had a part in the writing of the Bible, from Moses to the apostle John. It took over 1500 years to produce the Bible.

Out of all the men who wrote the books of the Bible, Luke "the beloved physician" (Col. 4:14) was the only Gentile. He penned the gospel of Luke and the book of Acts.

The first section of the Old Testament is called the Pentateuch. It contains the first five books of the Bible (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy). These books, written by Moses, cover the period of time from Creation to the death of Moses, just prior to the entrance of God's people into the promised land.

The Old Testament contains twelve books of history, from Joshua through Esther. There are five books of poetry: Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Solomon. There are five books of the major prophets: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel and Daniel. There are 12 minor prophets, from Hosea through Malachi.

The New Testament contains four gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John), each telling the story of the life of Christ from different viewpoints. The New Testament has one book of history, the book of Acts, which tells of the establishment of the church and the growth of Christianity in the first century. It also has 21 epistles, the majority of which were written by the apostle Paul (Romans through Jude) and one book of prophecy (the Revelation), penned by John while on Patmos.

The Old Testament was written in Hebrew (with the exception of Daniel 2:4b-7:28 and Ezra 4:8-6:18). The New Testament was written in Greek.

“That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;” - Colossians 1:10

“ELDERS ... FEED THE FLOCK OF GOD” - 1 Peter 5:1,2

Remember to support our Gospel meeting. Pray that many will come hear the Gospel. Attend every session to build yourself up in the holy faith and to encourage your brothers and sisters. Invite people—friends, family, neighbors, co-workers, all you meet, to come visit. Follow-up with those you've invited. Give them a call and let them know that they are important to you and that you will be there to greet them.

Also, there will be a Fellowship luncheon after the Sunday morning assembly. Everyone is invited, and encouraged to bring a guest. The food for our bodies is always good, but the food for our SOULS is even better.

Food is necessary to the body and sharing food with others is good, but consider how necessary your encouragement and presence is to the other brethren and visitors in the congregation. Show them you care, share yourself with them. Let's think of others and how we can build them up. Remember what God has told us:

“Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another; Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.” - Romans 12:9-14

- Elders, West Columbia church of Christ

Invite someone Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to visit that evening for our Gospel Meeting!
We printed 2000 invitation sheets and still have about 500 remaining.
