BEARING FRUIT

Bearing fruit is something all Christians must do. Jesus wasn't giving an agriculture lesson when he said: "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire." - Matthew 7:19

Usually we jump right to the harvesting stage, wanting to pull good fruit out of thin air, much like the rich young ruler who asked Jesus, "What good thing shall I do ..." (Matthew 19:16) as if that were all there was to it. Like him, to be fruitful we should first think instead about how to prepare ourselves to be able to bear good fruit. If we prepare properly, we'll bear fruit; good fruit, and lots of it. Think for a moment on how you'd go about getting some apples:

First and foremost, you must want the fruit, else you won't put out the effort. If you don't like apples, would you buy an apple tree, dig a hole, plant it and water it etc.? You wouldn't, you'd quit first. We also must know and be fully convinced the work is worth the effort: "To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:" - Romans 2:7

Second, we must get the ground ready—us! You wouldn't drop a tree on the ground in your backyard and expect it to grow. Look at the qualities a Christian must cultivate in order to bear fruit (they aren't fruit of themselves): "add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful ..." - 2 Peter 1:4-8.

Then we must plant the right seeds. Apples don't come from kudzu. If we want good fruit, we must plant good seed - God's word and wisdom, not man's: "The seed is the word of God" - Luke 8:11, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth;"- Romans 1:16

The seed must then be watered and nurtured and cultivated while waiting for the harvest. You don't plant a tree then harvest the next day. We also ought to have patience and faith in God. Tend to your faith. Wait on the Lord, don't be discouraged, it will be worth it! "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." - Galatians 6:9

“The Truth is What Makes Men Free”

Sometimes apparently, the religious people around us seem to have some success. At least they gather people together. Whether these people are saved, forgiven of God, is another matter. But the apparent success in some such religious circles deludes some of our preachers, it seems, and they begin to chant or speak the denominational world's doctrine & principles.

I almost cried outwardly last Sunday night upon hearing a man of the church on a radio broadcast after giving some good moral lessons and sound principles apart from how to be saved from sin, then conclude his discussion with this expression: “If you haven't made known your faith in Christ, why don't you seek or find opportunity to do so soon.”

I thought to myself that this couldn't be coming from a gospel preacher, yet it was. At least he has been recognized as a gospel preacher. Yet in this closing exhortation to people of the world the best he offered them was the exact same thing that the denominational preacher offers them – “Profess your faith in Christ.” It's the same thing that they've been telling people, erroneously, for decades. It is not with scriptural foundation, no matter how learned the speaker may be, nor how well known or famous. It simply is not the gospel of Jesus and it hurts - really hurts, and hurts deeply — to hear it expressed by a gospel preacher, or one who is entrusted with the opportunity to preach the gospel, yet in such a spot as this does not preach the gospel.

Many thoughts ran through my mind upon hearing this via radio. I doubt if one little fellow could stem the tide of such departures, or cause such a broadcast to change from its course. But I can tell you few who read this of the error; I can apologize for the speaker; for the people who put the sermons on the air; tell the few who read this of how that is not scriptural and leads souls away from the Truth; and that the Truth is what makes men free. It is not a wide spread popular doctrine or expression that saves or frees — NEVER! Only obedience to the gospel of Jesus saves or forgives or adds one to the church which belongs to Jesus. I don't know why there are brethren in the church or who have long past obeyed the gospel, who take up these worldly ways, but they do — I heard it myself. Reject this kind of thing, no matter what mouth it comes from. Learn, love and obey the gospel for this is the way of salvation. Never does the gospel say, “Accept,” “Profess” nor “make known” and by so doing you're saved. Crf
